HEALTH MINISTRY

WALKING FOR THE HEALTH OF IT

ZION Health Ministry challenged as many people, who were interested, in Walking for the Health of It challenge led by ZION Health committee member Joyce Phalen. It was held from Sept. 9-Dec. 3, 2023. We had 18 people who started and 17 finished their new way of life. Pep talks, encouragement and recipes were part of the challenge, in order to better help with healthy food choices for the holidays. The group met once a month for more support and encouragement, recipes and friendship. The total miles and prizes were given out at the get-together on Dec. 11. Walking, swimming, gardening, taekwondo, push-ups and riding bicycles, were all used and converted to steps. This group showed they really cared about their overall health. We then discussed if there is interest in doing it in 2024. Stand by for Moving for Your Health coming this Spring! Happy New Year to all.

SOCKTOBER

Fifty-four pair of socks were collected and divided between SAM25 and Safe Haven, bringing the total to 492 pairs. Thank you so much to all of you for your donations!

UPCOMING BLOOD DRIVE

ZION's next Blood Drive will be held Mon., April 15. Please track your 56 days, so you may donate at our Blood Drive.

YOUTH

ELCA NATIONAL YOUTH GATHERING

ZION Youth are attending the National Youth Gathering July 16-20 in New Orleans. An exciting opportunity for youth in grades 8-12! Sign up at the Info Desk or contact Curt Preston at 715.853.4999. Watch for planning meetings! Visit www.elca.church/gathering for more information.

THANK YOU

ZION Lutheran Church,

Thank you for the prayer shawl and the reception after my confirmation ceremony. It's nice to have a supportive community. Thank you ~ Claire Wegner

To whom it may concern,

I would like to thank the congregation and those who donated to the fun for the generous scholarship I received this year, not to mention those I have received in years prior. The funds greatly assist me in paying for school and in general make things a little easier when it comes to finances. Wishing you all a Happy New Year. Thank you again ~ Calvin Schultz

Dear ZION Lutheran members,

Thank you so much for your generous donation to the Homme boy's program. We very much appreciate it! Blessings to you ~ Pamela Cotton, MA, CSW

ZION Lutheran Church,

Thank you for your recent donation to SAM25. Your kindness and generosity is appreciated! ~ SAM25

ZION members,

I wanted to reach out and say thank you for the scholarship. It definitely helped to push me further on my way to being able to become a better person and to become a strong person in the church community. I look forward to what I will be able to achieve thanks to your thoughtfulness. Sincerely ~ Peyton Schultz

God's Message of Hope

“How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, ‘Your God reigns.’”

— Isaiah 52:7

Would you believe this verse from Isaiah is a 2,600-year-old Christmas greeting from God? It is! God originally sent this greeting to those Jewish people who were exiled in Babylon (present-day Iraq) in the sixth century B.C. The Lord also had the prophet send this greeting to the ragtag handful of people who remained behind in Jerusalem, the once proud capital of the Jewish nation.

Can you imagine their mindset? Whether they were hauled off to Babylon or remained in the ruins of Jerusalem — it must have seemed their whole world was out of control. Their ancient homeland of Israel, once promised to their ancestor Abraham and his family, was destroyed. Their worship life was in shambles. The sacrifices they offered, which foreshadowed the work of the promised Savior, were no longer offered on the huge bronze altar outside the temple. In fact, the temple, built by great King Solomon, had been trashed and torched by the armies of Babylon. There must have been an ache in their hearts as these people prayed to God. They had nothing.

Is this how God's promises to Adam and Eve, to Abraham and to King David would end, with a whimper in the desert of the ancient Near East? Of course not. God is faithful. He sent a greeting of hope to these hopeless people. The God of faithful love and mercy came to his weary and lonely people with a message of good news. 'Your God reigns!' God would make it possible for those exiled in Babylon to return home.

Looking at our recent celebration of Christ's birth, we can relate to this Christmas greeting because in reality we are a people who have nothing. As we stand before God, we see our sins are cause for a spiritual exile. God has every reason to cast us out of his presence — to send us away from his goodness. Adam and Eve forsook the complete, wholesome peace that was theirs in Paradise. As a result, we lack that perfect peace. In fact, we don't even deserve it. We don't even deserve the little blessings God gives in our lives. We don't deserve God's message of hope. The truth is we deserve to be exiled to sin and death forever.

Oh! We may have tinsel and toys, lights and presents. We may have the things providing temporary pleasure, and we might think that's enough. Our sinful hearts may think it's enough to hear Christmas carols on the radio, to taste Christmas cookies, or receive a peck on the cheek from underneath the mistletoe. But that's not enough. Such things cannot fill our hearts with peace. It's at Christmas many people feel depressed and alone. It's at Christmas we miss loved ones who have passed away. The glitter of the holidays just isn't enough to keep peace in our hearts. That is not what Christmas is. For Christmas is nothing, and we have nothing if we don't have God's greeting of "good tidings."

The God of history, our all-powerful and merciful God, intervened in the world scene for us all. The Christmas angel came to the shepherds that first Christmas announcing, "Peace on earth!" And God has sent his Christmas greeting to you, "Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!" That's what Christmas is all about. God gives us what we need in his Holy Word. He gives us a message of hope and love, and he gives us the ability through His Holy Spirit to receive and believe it.

God has delivered us. That's the perfect gift. Jesus Christ is what Christmas is all about, the reason for the season. He is the Son of God and Son of Mary who came to trade himself for us in life and death. The One who had every right to condemn and exile us found a way to pardon us without violating his own perfection. Christ came to deliver us from the guilt of sin and the fear of death. He came to deliver us safely to his home in heaven.

Christmas is all about needy people and how God has supplied all our needs. He's provided the best gift of all, our salvation. Again, we've heard the good tidings of the angels. The messengers have come to our hearts again and brought wonderful news of deliverance from sin, death, and the devil. Every time we hear the Christmas message — God's good news greeting — we are assured that we are not sentenced forever to live in an inside-out, upside-down world. In Bethlehem, God came to assure us that he has a better life in store for us, a life forever in his presence.

May God bless you and your family as we enter the new year!

~ Pastor Scott Ludford

HOMME HOME THANK YOU

Dear Members of ZION Lutheran Church in Shawano,
I would like to personally thank you for the huge Christmas donation you made to Homme Youth & Family Programs. Just to share a little bit about what it means for our kids to have presents for Christmas. Many of our boys would get little or nothing to open on Christmas morning, some, this is the first time they've received anything. We as staff at Homme know how much they appreciate it just by the looks on their faces ... I wish you could see them. It's also a sad time for some of them as they will not be with their loved ones, so knowing there are those, like yourself, who care enough to remember them helps greatly.

I spent over ten years at Homme, retired for 18 months and now have been back for over a year. ZION has been a huge supporter of our work with the boys, as I have seen for years. I cannot tell you how much it is appreciated.

I am speaking at Shawano Area Conference of Churches Annual Meeting on Feb. 4 in Little Suamico, Wis., and have asked our unit supervisor Stephana Andres who heads our Christmas programs at Homme, to come along to share in-person what the gifts given to our boys mean to them.

I would also invite a small group of you to come visit us at Homme, so we can share our work with you. We have chapel services on Sunday morning. I could have two or three boys come back to the chapel to share them personally if you would like.

Please let me know if there's anything else I can share. May the blessing of God be upon you and your congregation.

~ Monte Smith, Spiritual Counselor/Chaplain

NEW CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Soccer Scoop: Who's Making a Fool of Mac?
by Matt Christopher

Mac is the best goalie on his soccer team — and he's not afraid to let everyone know it. Then somebody on the school newspaper creates a new comic strip that caricatures Mac and his performance on and off the field. Mac wants to put a stop to it, but no one seems to know who the cartoonist is. He thinks it must be someone on the soccer team itself, because the strip is too tightly connected to the team for it to be an outsider. But his suspicions lead to one dead end after another. Can he discover who the artist is before the comic strip gets out of hand?

Slam Dunk by Matt Christopher and Robert Hirschfeld

When a new school year starts, and thirteen-year-old basketball star Julian feels a lot of pressure as he realizes he is the only remaining player from last year's winning team, a friend's health crisis helps him regain perspective.

Rebel Horse Rescue
by Miralee Ferrell

Summer is winding down for Kate and her friends when a surprise visitor appears at her family's stable — a beautiful horse wearing a halter and a bad attitude. Dubbing the horse "Rebel," the friends set out to find the horse's owner. Where did he come from, and why are horses all over the area disappearing from their pastures and paddocks? It's a mystery that even the sheriff can't figure out, so Kate heads up the investigation. When Kate's autistic brother develops a connection to Rebel, Kate wonders — did God bring Rebel to them for a bigger purpose? A perfect book for kids ages 9-13.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Sunday School students performed their Children's Christmas program Dec. 16 entitled "Miracle in the Manger." The kids and teachers put on a fantastic play.

WEE CARE FOOD PACKS

HELP FROM WOLF RIVER HIGH Wee Care received help packing food bags for school kids from Wolf River Lutheran High School. They packed enough bags in one hour for several weeks of supplies to school kids.

DONATION TO WEE CARE

Wee Care volunteers accepted a donation from Shawano Specialty Papers, presented by Linda Thomas.

OATMEAL COOKIE SALE

Wee Care will be selling oatmeal cookies on Feb.3-4. Mark your calendars and help support a great cause!

CHURCH IN SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY

Our food pantry is in need of paper bags, but not plastic. Thank you for your support of food donations for SAPARC (Shawano Area Food Pantry and Resource Center) as we continue to replenish their shelves with donations.

ZION'S BOOK CLUB

Come join ZION's Book Club on Wed., Feb. 14 at 9:15 AM in ZION's Library. We are reading The Clover Girls by Viola Shipman. Bring your favorite book to share with us. Questions, call Deb Larson at 320.493.0284 or Dorothy Eidahl at 715.526.2650. Hope to see you there!

FESTIVAL OF TREES

Thank you so much for helping us revive the Festival of Trees at ZION.

We had many good comments about our efforts to spread God's light!

The trees were absolutely gorgeous and added a beautiful touch to ZION for Christmas time.
