ZLCW Salad Supper Thank you to everyone participating in the Salad Supper 2018. Some people cooked, baked, set tables, served food, or donated money to this effort. We had some excellent ZLCW waitresses and four young ladies who helped bus tables for us. Thank you Rosella, Claire, Brianna, and Maddy. Our clean-up crew was right on task and had fun working together. Our attendance was 177 despite the storm warnings sounding. Leftovers were split between Safe Haven, SAFPARC and a Community dinner in Clintonville. Thank you to all who helped in any way. We made over $1,800 for the Zion Lutheran Church Women. This effort helps with the benevolences we send in December. See you next year!

~ Salad Supper Committee: Pam Bruecker, Mitzi Moesch, Sandy Rhode, and Karen Childs

Thank you to all the members of Zion who made donations for school kits, personal care kits, and material for quilts. We sent out 75 banana boxes on Friday, Oct. 5 containing 248 quilts/blankets, 29 personal care kits, 20+ school kits, 8 sewing kits, and 36 bars of soap. Thanks again. ~ ZLCW Quilters

Deborah Maier, Anna Hartt, has penned her second book The River Flows On.

As a member of our congregation, she strives for a Christian life through her music, her compassion, and her trust in God. If you like her first book, Listen to the Voices of Your Heart, pick up a copy of her new book and be inspired by the events of her life that led her to write. Copies will be available before and after worship services on October 27 and 28.

Living, breathing, and walking in His light, we paint our life's canvas with bold strokes and beautiful hues of red, yellow, green, and blue. The harmonies of Sarah's music and the melodies of her lush gardens gave life to everything she did. In remembering her simple and beautiful youth, she understood the present, and she renewed her desire to follow the light of the world: Jesus Christ. Standing in the quiet reverence before the cross in her backyard, she tasted the love of Christ in the flowing river.

"Recycle" the Worship Bulletin —

Fewer bulletins are printed because many of you are following the service on the overhead screen. Attendance varies each week and each service, so please do not throw away the worship bulletin until after the 10:30 service. Stack it back on the bulletin desk so the usher may hand it to someone at the next service. Thank you!
