Deborah Maier, Anna Hartt, has penned her second book The River Flows On.

As a member of our congregation, she strives for a Christian life through her music, her compassion, and her trust in God. If you like her first book, Listen to the Voices of Your Heart, pick up a copy of her new book and be inspired by the events of her life that led her to write. Copies will be available before and after worship services on October 27 and 28.

Living, breathing, and walking in His light, we paint our life's canvas with bold strokes and beautiful hues of red, yellow, green, and blue. The harmonies of Sarah's music and the melodies of her lush gardens gave life to everything she did. In remembering her simple and beautiful youth, she understood the present, and she renewed her desire to follow the light of the world: Jesus Christ. Standing in the quiet reverence before the cross in her backyard, she tasted the love of Christ in the flowing river.

Sunday School Loud Offering next weekend October 27-28.

Please keep all your loose change and on the last weekend of each month bring it in for our Loud Offering collection.

Rehearsal For Community Christmas Singers!

The annual community cantata began rehearsing on Monday, October 15, 6pm at St. John's Lutheran Church, Marion. Keep updated by liking their Facebook page "Community Christmas Singers". Share the information with friends you have who would be interested in joining the group. Everyone who loves to sing in a choir is invited.

"Recycle" the Worship Bulletin — Fewer bulletins are printed because many of you are following the service on the overhead screen. Attendance varies each week and each service, so please do not throw away the worship bulletin until after the 10:30 service. Stack it back on the bulletin desk so the usher may hand it to someone at the next service. Thank you!

Youth Fundraiser....Aluminum Can Collection Bin located behind the garage!

The Youth appreciate your donations—which must be bagged—as an ongoing fund raiser.
