Like signs along roads that tell us what to do, we see signs along the way on our Lenten journey that show us the way to Christ. This week, we are reminded to merge our lives with long history of the story of salvation that began in the Garden of Eden, and is revealed in the sacrifice of the promised Messiah.

Please join us for Lenten Meals...

 the 11:00 am services.

† supper beginning at 5:00 pm before service.

It's exactly as advertised... bring a sack lunch and dive in to the Bible. The study group will use Invitation to the Psalms: A Reader's Guide for Discovery and Engagement, by Rolf and Karl Jacobson. Rolf A. Jacobson is professor of Old Testament at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. Karl A. Jacobson is assistant professor of religion at Augsburg College in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

One commentator wrote: "Rolf and Karl Jacobson tackle the complex and often confusing world of ancient biblical poetry and provide an astute and accessible guide for understanding the book of Psalms. Written in an engaging style with a clear format, Invitation to the Psalms will help students quickly grasp how to use the psalms for individual devotion and group learning. The book's examples are engaging and often humorous, keeping students involved in the process of learning poetry in a modern world so devoid of the genre." —Beth LaNeel Tanner, New Brunswick Theological Seminary.
